

IN MEMORIAM
FRED KOREMATSU,
1919–2005

This symposium issue is dedicated to the memory of Fred Korematsu, whose wartime fight for his rights as a United States citizen will inspire generations to come.

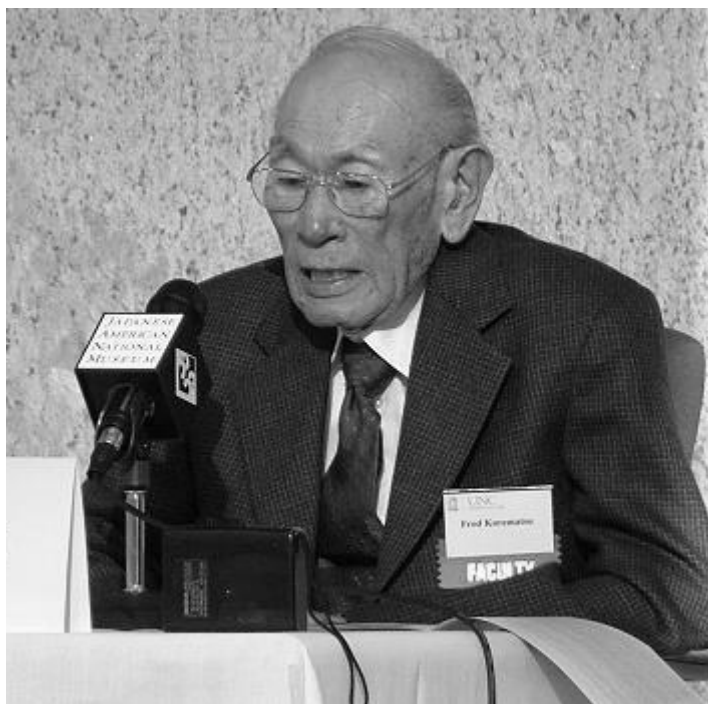

Photo by Leslie Branden-Muller

Fred Korematsu, sharing recollections of his Supreme Court litigation at "Judgments Judged and Wrongs Remembered: Examining the Japanese American Civil Liberties Cases of World War II on their Sixtieth Anniversary," Japanese American National Museum, Los Angeles, California, November 5, 2004.