

Duke Law Journal

VOLUME 1966

WINTER

NUMBER 1

FOREWORD

This issue of the Duke Law Journal is dedicated to Professor Brainerd Currie, William R. Perkins Professor of Law at Duke University. The tributes that follow speak for not only the individual writers but also for the many who knew Professor Currie. They graphically illustrate that Brainerd Currie's life was not restricted to a single, minute field of the law but rather encompassed many interests. He was teacher, lawyer, dean, advisor, editor, confidant, husband, father and man, and at each he strived to do his best. To Brainerd Currie, contributing less was the unpardonable sin.

The Editors