BOOKS RECEIVED

COPYRIGHT AND INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY. By Julian J. Marke. New York: The Fund for the Advancement of Education, 1967. Pp. 111. Paperbound.

Professor Marke's short work examines and analyzes the possible ramifications of the 1965 policy statement of the United States Office of Education that materials produced as a result of research activities supported by funds from the Office of Education will be placed in the public domain.

ESTABLISHING & ADMINISTERING PENSION & PROFIT SHARING PLANS & TRUST FUNDS. By David C. Rothman. Philadelphia, Pennsylvania: Joint Committee on Continuing Legal Education of the American Law Institute and the American Bar Association, 1967. Pp. xxvi, 243. $5.25 paperbound.

The newest addition to the series of Taxation Practice Handbooks published by the Joint Committee on Continuing Legal Education affords the general practitioner a general introduction to this complex subject.

FEDERAL ESTATE AND GIFT TAXES EXPLAINED. Chicago, Illinois: Commerce Clearing House, Inc., 1967. Pp. 294. $4.00 paperbound.

This book provides a handy source of general information as well as a beginning point for research in the field of federal estate and gift taxation.

PROPERTY LAW INDICTED. By W. Barton Leach. Lawrence, Kansas: The University of Kansas Press, 1967. Pp. xii, 94. $2.25.

In this text of two lectures given at the University of Kansas Law School in 1966, Professor Leach presents his case for reform in the rules of property law.

SECURITIES LAW. By Harold S. Bloomenthal. Boulder, Colorado: Pruett Press, Inc., 1966. Pp. xii, 640. $12.50.

This casebook, designed for a securities regulation course or an advanced course in corporations, appears to be an excellent addition to the rather small number of law school texts on the subject of corporate finance.

THE PREPARATION OF COMMERCIAL AGREEMENTS. By Ludwig Mandel. New York: Practising Law Institute, 1966. Pp. x, 191.

This newest edition of the book reflects the provisions of the Uniform Commercial Code in both its text and its forms.