

INDEX—WAR CONTRACT TERMINATION (PART II)*

ACCOUNTING PROBLEMS

Directive establishing principles for cost determination by contractual agreement, 594-5; administrative statement of objectives on unsettled problems, 595; types of accounting problems, 596; basis of settlement: agreement and disagreement settlements, 596-7; what constitutes recognized commercial accounting practices, 598 ff.; inadequacy of normal commercial accounting methods as applied to termination, 599-60; exclusion of costs included in renegotiation refunds, 600; criticism of such exclusion, 600-2; elements of costs, 602 ff.; common inventory, 602; depreciation, 603; loss on special facilities, 603; experimental and research expense, 603; special leases, 603; advertising, 604; limits on aggregate overhead, 604; initial loading costs, 604; items excluded, 605; verification procedure, 605; responsibility for examining and settling subcontracts, 606; desirability of "over-all" verification and settlement, 607; work stoppage and inventorying, 608; disposal of materials, 609; methods of settlement as affecting application of accounting principles, 611; settlement expenses, 611; presentation of termination data in financial statements, 612; cost principles as affected by the Contract Settlement Act, 686 ff.

ADMINISTRATIVE AND JUDICIAL MACHINERY FOR TERMINATIONS

policy determinations, 659; Office of War Mobilization, 659; Advisory Unit for War and Post-War Adjustment Policies, 660; Joint Contract Termination Board, 660; Surplus War Property Administration, 662; role of procurement agencies, 663; congressional proposals, 663; Director of Contract Settlement, 664; proposals regarding finality of settlements, review, bases, subcontractors, General Accounting Office, 664 ff.; administration of settlements: the procurement agencies, 665; War Department set-up, 666; review of settlements, 668; role of General Accounting Office, 669 ff.; same, congressional proposals, 672; disposal of disagreements, 673; claims, suits or disputes, 673; prerequisites to filing claim or bringing suit, 675; handling of claims by General Accounting Office, 676; review by Comptroller General, 677; claims as bases of court action, 678; Congress as last resort, 679; legislative proposals for disputed claims, 680; proposed Appeal Board, 681.

ARBITRATION

settlement by arbitration, legislative proposals, 680; provisions for settlement, in Contract Settlement Act of 1944, 688.

BARUCH-HANCOCK REPORT

statement of objectives, 595; recommendations as to property disposals, 638; suggestions to the Surplus Administrator, 639; views on plant clearance, 647, 656; coverage and blind spots, 661.

COMPTROLLER GENERAL (see GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE).

CONTRACT SETTLEMENT ACT OF 1944

background, 683-5; Murray-George Bill, 684; principles of the Act, 685; Office of Director of Contract Settlement, 685; Advisory Board, 685; basis of settlement, 686 ff.; agreement or determination, 686; cost principles, 686 ff.; bases for reopening settlements, 687; action by a review board when over $50,000, 687; appeals, 687; Appeal Board and the courts, 688; removal of the one-choice limitation, 688; arbitration, 688; agencies as mediators or arbitrators, 688; Court of Claims, additional commissioners and auditors, 688; interim financing, 689; removal and storage of inventories and machinery, 689; protection of smaller war contractors, 689-90; protecting subcontractor against prime contractor's default, 690; protection of Government, 690; role of General Accounting Office, 691; continuous congressional surveillance, 691; need for other reconversion legislation, 692.

DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY: CONTRACTOR-OWNED PROPERTY

as part of the contract termination procedure, 646 ff.; general objectives and policies, 646-7; common basis of dispositions and settlement agreements, 647; allocability, 647-8; assistance of prime contractors, 648; disposition procedures, 649; inventory lists, 649; standard inventory forms, 650; basic steps in inventorying, 650; breakdowns, 650; salvage and scrap, 651; review in cases involving over $50,000; pricing policy as to scrap, 653; the buyer's covenant as to use, 653; selling procedures for usable property, 653; exploring potential purchases, 654; assistance of Government agencies, 654; pricing policies in the May 25, 1944, revision of Procurement Regulation 7, 655; blanket approval to contractors to make sales, 655; clearing of plant, 656; the 60 day rule, 656; allocation of risk under the 60 day limit, 656; specific regulations in PR-15, 656; storage at contractor's plant, 657; subcontractors, 658; provisions of Contract Settlement Act of 1944, 689.

DISPOSITION OF PROPERTY: FEDERALLY OWNED SURPLUSES

causes of surpluses, 633; World War I record, 634; Executive Order No. 9235, 635; War Department's Procurement Regulation No. 7, 637; Surplus War Property Administration: creation, background, constituency, role, 637 ff.; operating agencies in property disposition, 638; statement of policies in dispositions, 639; current disposals of * See, also, Index to Part I of this Symposium, supra p. 693, contents of which are given in the Foreword of this issue, supra p. 561.

- consumer goods, 639; stages in development of surpluses, 640; main objectives in property disposition, 641; inventorying problems, 641; recording and reporting surpluses, 642; standard detailed classification problem, 642; war plants problems, 643; extent of Government ownership, manufacturing facilities, 644; diversity of legislative proposals, 645.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 9235
on surplus property utilization, 636.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 9347
establishing Office of War Mobilization, 660.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 9425
establishing Surplus War Property Administration, 637.
- EXECUTIVE ORDER No. 9427
establishing Retraining and Reemployment Administration, 662.
- GENERAL ACCOUNTING OFFICE
contention over finality of settlements by agreement, 597; role, in proposed legislation, 665, 667, 672 ff.; review of settlements, 669; history of the office, 670; extent of legitimate concern in settlements, 670 ff.; role in handling claims, 673, 676 ff.; role under Contract Settlement Act of 1944, 691.
- INTERIM FINANCING
program envisaged by Contract Settlement Act of 1944, 689.
- LABOR AND TERMINATIONS concern over income maintenance and job stability, 613; subsidiary considerations, 613; labor's rejection of "mature economy" theory, 614; contract termination as mechanism of purposeful transition, 614; post-war objectives, 615; immediacy of the issues, 616; extent of prospective demobilization, 618; the enlarged labor force, 619; technological advances, 619; concentration of war industries, 620; distress areas, 621; need for unified demobilization policy, 622; reconversion not simply conversion in reverse, 623; role of labor and management in formulation reconversion policies, 623; need for over-all legislative program, 624; Kilgore Bill, 624; labor's concern with administrative decisions, 625; distribution of terminations, 626; considerations of distribution of industrial manpower, 627; inventory of skills, 627; limitations in reconversion reserves, 628; issues of trade union policy, 628 ff.; seniority, 629; dismissal pay, 629; military service clauses in labor contracts, 631; collective bargaining and the reinstatement of servicemen, 631; needed harmonization of law, policy and termination procedures, 632.
- LEGISLATION (see CONTRACT SETTLEMENT ACT OF 1944).
- MURRAY BILL (see CONTRACT SETTLEMENT ACT OF 1944).
- RECONVERSION COSTS
allowance, compared with direct aid for financing reconversion, 628; (in general, see Accounting Problems).
- RENEGOTIATION
exclusion of costs included in renegotiation refunds from costs to be included in termination settlements, 600.
- SMALLER WAR CONTRACTORS
provisions of Contract Settlement Act of 1944, 689-90.
- STANDARD COMMODITY CLASSIFICATION
Technical Paper No. 26, 643.
- STATUTES (see CONTRACT SETTLEMENT ACT OF 1944).
- SURPLUS WAR PROPERTY ADMINISTRATION
establishment, 637; background in the Baruch-Hancock report, 638; constituency, 638; role, 638 ff.; statements on salvage and scrap, 651.
- TERMINATIONS AFTER WORLD WAR I procurement program at the time of armistice, 564 ff.; size of procurement program, 565; conversion and concentration of industry, 566; legal bases of termination of contracts, 567 ff.; divergencies as to termination clauses, 567 ff.; emergence of standard clauses, 568; bases of settlement, 569; limited statutory bases for terminations, 569; common law principles of Contract: implied power to terminate, 570; measure of damages, 571; doctrine of frustration, 571; economic policy issues, 572 ff.; abrupt vs. tapered termination, 572; no solution of post-war job dislocation, 573; legal bases and economic policies of terminations in practical operation, 574 ff.; initiation and handling of cancellation proposals, 574; cancellation left to procurement agencies, 574; impingement of industry and labor views, 575-7; recommendations of the Employment Service, 577; practical disregard of job dislocation angle, 577; rate of cancellation, 579; settlement formula and elements of compensation, absent contractual provisions, 577-80; interim financing, 580; administrative procedure, 581 ff.; difficulties over informal contracts, 582; Dent Act, 583; tightening investigative procedures, 584; problem of loss of anticipated profits: judicial decision, 586; statutory just compensation, 586; review by Department of Justice, 587 ff.; review beyond aspects of fraud, 589; list of legal points in examining wartime contracts, 589-91; lessons from World War I, 592-3.
- WORLD WAR I (see TERMINATIONS AFTER WORLD WAR I).