

Editors' Note

It is with great sadness that we report the death of one of the contributors to this issue. Professor Robert B. McKay died in July 1990. In addition to being a stalwart of the bar, Professor McKay was a guiding light for those of us who sought fairness and efficiency in establishing and implementing claims resolution facilities.