INDEX—WAR CONTRACT TERMINATION (PART II)*

Accounting Problems
Directive establishing principles for cost determination by contractual agreement, 594-5; administrative statement of objectives on unsettled problems, 595; types of accounting problems, 596; basis of settlement: agreement and disagreement, 596-7; what constitutes recognized commercial accounting practices, 598 ff.; inadequacy of normal commercial accounting methods as applied to termination, 599-601; exclusion of costs included in renegotiation refunds, 600; criticism of such exclusion, 600-2; elements of costs, 602 ff.; common inventory, 603; depreciation, 603; loss on special facilities, 603; experimental and research expense, 604; special leases, 605; advertising, 604; limits on aggregate overhead, 604; initial loading costs, 604; items excluded, 605; verification procedure, 605; responsibility for examining and settling subcontracts, 606; desirability of "over-all" verification and settlement, 607; work stoppage and inventorying, 608; disposal of materials, 609; methods of settlement as affecting application of accounting principles, 611; settlement expenses, 611; presentation of termination data in financial statements, 612; cost principles as affected by the Contract Settlement Act, 616 ff.

Administrative and Judicial Machinery for Terminations
Policy determinations, 659; Office of War Mobilization, 659; Advisory Unit for War and Post-War Adjustment Policies, 660; Joint Contract Termination Board, 660; Surplus War Property Administration, 662; role of procurement agencies, 663; congressional proposals, 663; Director of Contract Settlement, 664; proposals regarding finality of settlements, review, bases, subcontractors, General Accounting Office, 664 ff.; administration of settlements: the procurement agencies, 665; War Department set-up, 666; review of settlements, 668; role of General Accounting Office, 669 ff.; same, congressional proposals, 672; disposal of disagreements, 673; claims, suits or disputes, 673; prerequisites to filing claim or bringing suit, 675; handling of claims by General Accounting Office, 676; review by Comptroller General, 677; claims as bases of court action, 678; Congress as last resort, 679; legislative proposals for disputed claims, 680; proposed Appeal Board, 681.

Arbitration

Baruch-Hancock Report
Statement of objectives, 595; recommendations as to property disposals, 638; suggestions to the

* See, also, Index to Part I of this Symposium, supra p. 561.

Disposition of Property: Contractor-Owned Property
As part of the contract termination procedure, 646 ff.; general objectives and policies, 646-7; common basis of dispositions and settlement agreements, 647; allocability, 647-8; assistance of prime contractors, 648; disposition procedures, 649; inventory lists, 649; standard inventory forms, 650; basic steps in inventorying, 650; breakdowns, 650; salvage and scrap, 651; review in cases involving over $50,000; pricing policy as to scrap, 653; the buyer's covenant as to use, 653; selling procedures for usable property, 653; exploring potential purchases, 654; assistance of Government agencies, 654; pricing policies in the May 25, 1944, revision of Procurement Regulation 7, 655; blanket approval to contractors to make sales, 655; clearing of plant, 656; the 60 day rule, 656; allocation of risk under the 60 day limit, 656; specific regulations in PR-15, 656; storage at contractor's plant, 657; subcontractors, 658; provisions of Contract Settlement Act of 1944, 658.

Disposition of Property: Federally Owned Surpluses
Causes of surpluses, 633; World War I record, 634; Executive Order No. 9235, 635; War Department's Procurement Regulation No. 7, 637; Surplus War Property Administration: creation, background, constituency, role, 637 ff.; operating agencies in property disposition, 638; statement of policies in dispositions, 639; current disposals of plus Administrator, 639; views on plant clearance, 647, 656; coverage and blind spots, 661.

Comptroller General (see General Accounting Office).

Contract Settlement Act of 1944
Background, 683-5; Murray-George Bill, 684; principles of the Act, 685; Office of Director of Contract Settlement, 685; Advisory Board, 685; basis of settlement, 686 ff.; agreement or determination, 686; cost principles, 686 ff.; bases for reopening settlements, 687; action by a review board when over $50,000, 687; appeals, 687; Appeal Board and the courts, 688; removal of the one-choice limitation, 688; arbitration, 688; agencies as mediators or arbitrators, 688; Court of Claims, additional commissioners and auditors, 688; interim financing, 689; removal and storage of inventories and machinery, 689; protection of smaller war contractors, 689-90; protecting subcontractor against prime contractor's default, 690; protection of Government, 690; role of General Accounting Office, 691; continuous congressional surveillance, 691; need for other reconversion legislation, 692.

*See also, Index to Part I of this Symposium, supra p. 561.

[695]
Murray Bill (see Contract Settlement Act of 1944).

Reconversion Costs
allowance, compared with direct aid for financing reconversion, 628; (in general, see Accounting Problems).

Renegotiation
exclusion of costs included in renegotiation refunds from costs to be included in termination settlements, 600.

Smaller War Contractors

Standard Commodity Classification
Technical Paper No. 26, 643.

Statutes (see Contract Settlement Act of 1944).

Surplus War Property Administration establishment, 637; background in the Baruch-Hancock report, 658; constituency, 638; role, 638 ff.; statements on salvage and scrap, 651.

Terminations after World War I procurement program at the time of armistice, 564 ff.; size of procurement program, 565; conversion and concentration of industry, 566; legal bases of termination of contracts, 567 ff.; diversities as to termination clauses, 567 ff.; emergence of standard clauses, 568; bases of settlement, 569; limited statutory bases for terminations, 569; common law principles of Contract implied power to terminate, 570; measure of damages, 571; doctrine of frustration, 571; economic policy issues, 572 ff.; abrupt vs. tapered termination, 572; no solution of post-war job dislocation, 573; legal bases and economic policies of terminations in practical operation, 574 ff.; initiation and handling of cancellation proposals, 574; cancellation left to procurement agencies, 574; impingement of industry and labor views, 575 ff.; recommendations of the Employment Service, 577; practical disregard of job dislocation angle, 577; rate of cancellation, 579; settlement formula and elements of compensation, absent contractual provisions, 577-80; interim financing, 580; administrative procedure, 581 ff.; difficulties over informal contracts, 582; Dent Act, 583; tightening investigative procedures, 584; problem of loss of anticipated profits: judicial decision, 585; statutory just compensation, 585; review by Department of Justice, 587 ff.; review beyond aspects of fraud, 589; list of legal points in examining wartime contracts, 589-91; lessons from World War I, 592-3.

World War I (see Terminations after World War I).